Thank you for booking your parents' meeting appointments for next week and the week after, we are keen to share with you how children are getting on. There is still time to book an appointment, please phone the school office and speak to Paula if you need help with your booking.

We had our first session with Little Levans today. It is always wonderful to see the next generation starting school.

We have Early May Bank Holiday on Monday, my apologies, I forgot to put this on the diary dates, hence the text to remind everyone!
