Friday 11th December 2020

It was so lovely to see you all yesterday and we were so lucky with the weather too. What a superb production, in a brilliant setting. Well done children for a high quality performance. Puffins class have also spent an afternoon in The Exchange Gallery, Penzance this week exploring ideas for their own creations for next week's workshops. There have been some wonderful Christmas jumpers around the school today!

As we approach our last week together before Christmas we will be sending home some examples of work from the second half of the Autumn term.

Amongst other things, we have Christmas lunch and The Mousehole Cat live streaming puppet show to look forward to next week .
