Friday 18th June 2021

What a week it has been, very busy but very fruitful too. I was so proud of our school being part of such a special event, singing for 'The First Spouses' at the weekend. See our reviews and photos on the following pages. It's the sort of day that the children will remember forever.

We enjoyed getting out and about to see Dr Doolittle at the Minack Theatre. The weather was reasonably kind and the children enjoyed the performance.

The Royal Central School of Speech and Drama students have had a great week with our children. It was lovely to see how well the pupils responded and participated in their workshops, which we could see in action outdoors!

Thank you for your survey returns which are coming in thick and fast. When most are back I will analyse and feedback to you.

As you might expect, the DfE have asked us to continue with current COVID precautions beyond 21st June as the road map continues. It is our intention now to keep these going until the end of the Summer term, even if the rules do relax on 19th July. I will let you know about September when we are informed by the DfE.

Shining Stars of the Week

Morvy Puffins

For her excellent dedication to learning at school and home! Your coasts lap book is phenomenal!

Oscar Choughs

For being generally lovely: working hard, being kind and helpful to friends. Well done!

Singing to VIPs!

In the week before Saturday 12th June 2021, children from Puffins Class were invited to an event at the Minack Theatre. We knew that we would be performing some Ocean World songs, we knew that there was tight security surrounding everything and we knew that it had something to do with the G7 summit happening that weekend in Carbis Bay but we didn't know who we would actually be performing to....

As we arrived on the mini bus (thank you for driving us Mrs King!) we were amazed at the number of very smartly dressed police officers already on site. They were extremely friendly and smiley and had clearly been enjoying the views at the Minack! After a very hot rehearsal in the morning with the primary children, older choirs, dancers and musicians practising all together, we were told who we would be performing to...the spouses of the G7 leaders! We were all pretty amazed and suddenly very excited! The sun continued to shine on the performance itself and it went extremely well.

What we were not expecting however was that our audience would be coming down to talk to us after the performance...

"Jill Biden asked me who did my hair and said it was very pretty!" Lailani

"Carrie Johnson said I had a lovely smile and she had an amazing suit!" Alice

"I really liked speaking to Carrie Johnson and Jill Biden, they were both really kind and admired my hair. Jill Biden's dress was really pretty." M

"It was amazing meeting the VIPs – they said we were all so smiley!" Sorrel

"It was so much fun and really enjoyable talking to them." Chloe.

"I really enjoyed it. Meeting the first wives and husbands was amazing!" Bryher

"It was so hot but so fun. Being part of such an important event was really interesting, seeing how everything worked." Florrie

"It was really fun because I love singing and getting to sing to such important people was amazing!" Martha

Thank you to everyone involved for inviting us to attend this amazing opportunity!
