

Friday 16th September 2022

Dear parents,

On Monday 19th of September, the school will be closed to pay our respects to the passing of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II. As a school we are deeply saddened, and our thoughts and condolences are with the Royal Family at this very difficult time. As you are aware, Her Majesty is currently lying-in-state and I'm sure we will all bear witness on Monday morning to her historical state funeral at Westminster Abbey concluding with the last post and a 2-minute silence.

On Tuesday, all clubs will begin with Miss Ferguson's reading club in the morning, Josh's Capoeira and Ruth's dance club at lunchtime and Tasha's cooking club after school.

Our Autumn term is well under way now with strong links with Cape Cornwall Secondary School. Mr Gapp, for Physical Education and Mr Addy for Music have started their weekly lessons with Puffins. Swimming lessons for Year 3 and 4 have also begun and the overwhelming enthusiasm of John Brolly is always a breath of fresh air each week!

National Literacy Day

To celebrate National Literacy Day, we all dressed up as seasons and colours of the rainbow. The children read poetry about seasons, weather and the sky and made up their own verses.

The beautiful moon

Is an elegant, shiny ornament

Hanging

A bauble on a tall Christmas tree

By LBS

The moon is

A polished silver plate

Balanced on the straight

Horizon just about to slowly fall.

By AB

The moon is like

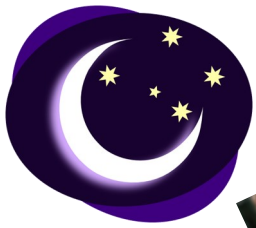

A glowing shiny, silver coin

Sparkling in the midnight sky

Like a glowing lamp

Lighting the way.

What season are we dressed up as?

Thank you!

A huge thank you to all of those bakers who donated tasty treats for the cake sale. We have raised £86.80 to put towards some new books for both classes. Fabulous!

WOW! Writing in Choughs

Choughs have been busy building some incredible sentences inspired by a mythical story all about a fox. We discussed myths and legends and began to plan some of our own sentences, thinking carefully about our five senses, what verbs to include and performing these as a class...

I travelled for days, running through the Amazon Rainforest, until I met another fox. I crept through the rainy, hot weather, not knowing what the roaring noise was... (RT-W, Yr1)

I travelled for days, running through the Amazon Rainforest, when I bumped into a Koala. I walked through the foggy cold weather, not knowing what the roaring and tweeting noise could be... (B-HJ, Yr2)

I travelled for days, running through a spooky cave, falling over stones. I ran through foggy, cold weather, not knowing what the roaring noise was... (OG, Yr2)

I travelled for days, walking under starry nights, until I met another fox. I walked through cloudy and thundery weather... (AG, Yr2)

I travelled for days, prowling over some twigs. I stumbled through the forest, not knowing what the squeaks and squeal noises were. My coat was as golden as an autumn leaf, but was getting soggy in the rain... (TB, Yr 2)
