

Dear Parents,

As we have arrived at the end of another Spring term, this week has been especially exciting, mainly because of the children's amazing performance at Songfest on Wednesday evening!

A huge thank you to Miss Finch and Miss Trembath for giving up their time to ensure the children achieve such wonderful aspirations.

Also, a huge thank you to Tia White for returning to St Levan school for her work experience this week. She has been wonderfully supportive and nurturing to all of our children – she is an asset to St Levan school and a superb role model for all of children.

We've had an Easter Egg hunt this morning amongst the puddles and gusts. We've also been interviewing for our new school secretary today. The school council asked lots of relevant and inquisitive questions. We are pleased to announce that Cassandra Crisp – Ursula's Mummy has been appointed as our new school secretary.

We are holding parent consultations within the second week after the Easter break, on Tuesday
