

International Literacy Day

Thursday 8th September

Tomorrow is International Literacy Day. This takes place on September 8th every year to raise awareness of literacy problems that exist within our own local communities as well as globally. We will be celebrating this event in two ways.

Firstly, we will be sharing poems about the weather and seasons to inspire us to write some of our own. We are planning to enter these into a poetry competition through Morrab Library. To celebrate the day, we will be dressing as seasons and weather. If they would like to, children can come to school dressed as a colour of the rainbow or as a season, e.g. with sunglasses and a cap for summer or hat, gloves, scarf and boots for winter.

Secondly, we will be having a Books and Bakes event next Monday afternoon (12th September). Proceeds will be used to buy some new books for both classes to enjoy and foster our love of reading. We would be grateful for donations of cake for this event. Cakes will be sold on the playground at 3.15 so we look forward to seeing you then.
